MEMORANDUM FOR:

Executive Secretary

National Security Council

SUBJECT:

Dissemination of National Intelligence to

Foreign Governments

1. In keeping with the present policy of the United States which associates this country with other governments in political and military cooperation, it is essential to provide these governments with U.S. national intelligence where such action will contribute to the security of the United States.

as drawn from the National Security Act of 1947 and the National Security Intelligence Directives. The volume of intelligence that can and should be released to certain foreign governments has become so considerable, however, and the potential danger of ill-advised release so magnified that the National Security Council might appropriately grant some specific authorization and clearly fix the responsibility for the dissemination of national intelligence to foreign governments.

3. It is therefore proposed that paragraph 5 of NECID No. 1 be designated 5 (a) and that the following be inserted:

Paragraph 5 (b) - The Director of Central Intelligence is authorized to disseminate National Intelligence on a strictly
